My 32LH2000 shipped with firmware version 3.12 and after some heavy googling, I found v.3.15 on an LG page. I thought others might be interested to know about this too... The only change I made was to convert the instructions to PDF from the original PowerPoint file. The instructions are attached and the firmware file can be downloaded from the LG software page, or from my Dropbox: v3.15.00_EU ...

I bought this Onkyo to replace my old Sony. The first thing I did was to update the firmware, actually I had to do that twice; I install my old 5.1 surround speakers set and the sound was great, it work fine with my old turntable, the cassette deck but also amazing with the LG bluray UP970 4K and Apple TV 4K all connected to a TV Hisense 50H6D 4K.
