Growing up and living within a society can foster the development and observation of social experience. Social experience provides individuals with the skills and habits necessary for participating within their own societies, as a society itself is formed [citation needed] through a plurality of shared experiences forming norms, customs, values, traditions, social roles, symbols and languages.

Here are three universal truths: (1) Life is God because everything is a part of God. (2) Light is God because everything is made of light. (3) Love is God because everything is held together by God. These truths come from people who have had near-death experiences. These same truths come from Jesus, Buddha, Krishna, Moses, Muhammad, Zoroaster, etc..
