The religion of the natural man is the worship of the mysterious, the wonderful, the miraculous, the inexplicable. They stand in awe before a thing they cannot explain, and that becomes their deity, their god [John 6:26-27].

The Religion of the Natural Man - W. A. Criswell Sermon

The term "natural religion" is sometimes taken to refer to a pantheistic doctrine according to which nature itself is divine. "Natural theology", by contrast, originally referred to (and still sometimes refers to) the project of arguing for the existence of God on the basis of observed natural facts. In contemporary philosophy, however, both "natural religion" and "natural ...
