Are you saying that negative feedback doesn't work? It doesn't provide the sustenance we need to maintain a positive view of ourselves. And that's the ultimate irony.

Research: Negative Feedback Rarely Helps People Improve

Negative atheism, also called weak atheism and soft atheism, is any type of atheism where a person does not believe in the existence of any deities but does not explicitly assert that there are none. Positive atheism, also called strong atheism and hard atheism, is the form of atheism that additionally asserts that no deities exist.. The terms "negative atheism" and "positive atheism" were used ...

In social psychology, a stereotype is an over-generalized belief about a particular category of people. Stereotypes are generalized because one assumes that the stereotype is true for each individual person in the category. While such generalizations may be useful when making quick decisions, they may be erroneous when applied to particular individuals.
